

PLANNING PLAN SAYS HUGHES

Candidate Says He Will Be Elected President

Ohio, Aug. 26.—(United Press.)—A tribunal of international fame will be established about the person of Charles E. Hughes declared after a conference with the Republican candidate. He came here to consult with international quack.

It is hardly necessary for me to say I shall earnestly support Senator Harding, Hughes said. He has complete familiarity with the problems of federal administration and we can feel assured that he will maintain the highest standard in government.

We cannot afford to have a Tammany kind of federal government. The nomination of Governor Cox was a mistake about by the skillful and determined effort of local Democratic bosses who represent the harmful influences in our political life.

Senator Harding has a genius for cooperation. We want extensive leadership but we want to put it to the test, sometimes serious, sometimes subtle, to create an autocracy of the executive, Senator Harding will be his own master but he will really seek counsel and not simply talk about it.

I believe also that Senator Harding's election will afford the best way of securing our proper relation to international cooperation.

CAPT. FARRER TO WED SO MUST DIVORCE FRONTO

"I gotta get a divorce." Her complexion evidently was as yellow as the acid, acquired by chemical properties. Attorney know the type.

"What grounds?" he asked. She told a long, crust story. "I suppose," he said, "if all this is so you have good grounds for action. I would advise—"

"That's the talk," she cut in, "but lay off the advising and write the papers. I gotta have it today. I wouldn't ask it in such a hurry but ya see there's another fellow who wants to marry me. Chances don't come every day. So I thought I better get him hitched right away."

The attorney tried to explain procedure attendant to granting of a divorce. Which won him the threat to "see a lawyer who knew his business."

SCANDALS ATTRACTS CROWD TO BURTS

Tri-city people showed their susceptibility and thoroughly enjoyed the "Scandals" whispered at the show of the season presented by George White and called "Scandals of 1919." There was a real fall house, and the big Broadway revue went over big before the appreciative local audience. Not for a moment was the show druggy, the big cast putting their show over with unity and ease, to the entire enjoyment of the crowd. The acting was splendid and the scenes entirely up to the minute. As a whole the big beauty revue was a successful spectacle, the songs snappy and catchy and the actors and actresses of the best. Among them were Grace Catherine, Helen Wilson, Blanche Boone, Irene Gray, Duke Rogers, Jack Edwards and many others of the original cast. Anna Fremont, however, remained in New York to take up her work in the 1920 Scandals revue, which is promised for the Burts for next season.

In quite every one uncovers to a look of lightning.

Bug-ology

What Do You Call Them?

Bedbug (Cimex lectularius). The origin of the name bedbug is unknown, but is supposed to be naturally suggested as it is descriptive. There are many local names for these parasites, as for illustration, around Boston they are called "Chinches," from Baltimore come the name "Mahogany Flat," in New York they are called "Red Coats," around Pittsburg they are called "Pocky Devils," in Cincinnati and the South "Nightriders," in St. Louis and Chicago district "Citizens Bunkers," the great West "Piercing." The old saying, "the bedbug has no teeth, but they get there just the same," is correct. Instead of teeth they possess a piercing and sucking beak to draw and rob you of your blood for their own body.

Bedbugs, no matter what you may call them, or where they come from, adesso has found a way to rid them if you will use faithfully the new chemical Pocky Devils Quiesce, "P. D. Q." A 35c package makes one quart, enough to kill a million bedbugs, roaches, fleas, ants or cockroaches and their eggs so well. P. D. Q. will not injure bedding, and each package contains a patent sprayer to enable you to get them in the hard-to-reach places. Descriptive for Pocky Devils to call them P. D. Q. is used. Sold by Ross' Drug Store, and other leading druggists.
